Proceedings of the conference on

HOMO VIATOR

Sapientia University
Institute of Humanities, Miercurea Ciuc
24-25 April 2015
Contents

István FRIED
“Journeys are Meaningful” (Travelling, Travellers, Literary Periods, Literary Journeys) ................................................. 7

Levente PAP
Piso the Rambler: Travelling and Tracking in Cicero’s Rhetoric Discourse .......................................................... 21

Zsuzsanna UJSZÁSZI
The Pre-Raphaelite Journey into the Middle Ages. A Quest for Spiritual Experience .................................................. 29

Dániel PUSKÁS
Orpheus in the Underground. Descents to the Underworld in 20th-Century and Contemporary Literature .......................... 45

Boróka PROHÁSZKA-RÁD
Homeward Journey through Poetry: Wallace Stevens’s The Poem that Took the Place of a Mountain .............................. 55

Judit PIELDNER
A Melancholy Journey Through Landscapes of Transience. W. G. Sebald: The Rings of Saturn ........................................ 65

Vilma-Irén MIHÁLY
The Pilgrimage as Inner and Outer Journey in Paulo Coelho’s The Pilgrimage .............................................................. 73

Ágnes HARASZTOS
The Image of the East-Central European in Rose Tremain’s The Road Home. Food, Materialism and Capitalist Faith in a Culture Clash .............................. 83

Éva TOLDI
Change of Place, Space Perception and Topographic Discourse ................................................................. 95

Zsuzsa TAPODI
Quo Vadis, Homo Viator? Journeys in Jože Hradil’s Faceless Pictures ................................................................. 113

Enikő MAIOR
The Question of Identity in Gary Shteyngart’s Little Failure .......................................................... 123

Ana-Maria GAVRILĂ
Understanding Jerusalem and its Cross-Cultural Dilemmas in Guy Delisle’s Jerusalem: Chronicles From the Holy City .............. 133